Local Students Win National Education Prizes

Federal Member for Chisholm, Anna Burke MP, today congratulated 6 local students whose academic achievement has earned them a 2010 Australian Student Prize.

The Australian Student Prize is awarded annually to 500 young Australians in recognition of their excellence in academic achievements, with winners nominated by state and territory education authorities.

The winners in the electorate of Chisholm were:

- Bridget King (Siena College)
- Kiho Park (Mount Waverley Secondary College)
- Jakub Patela (Melbourne High School)
- Rohan Singh (Melbourne High School)
- Lynn Wang (Haileybury Girls' College) and
- Mitchell Wong (Scotch College).

“The Australian Government promotes excellence in our schools, and these local students are among the nation’s highest achievers,” Mrs Burke said.

“The Australian Student Prize is a way of recognising and rewarding these students and I congratulate them for their achievements.”

Each Prize includes a certificate and an award of $2000 from the Australian Government.

The 6 winners from the electorate of Chisholm were amongst 132 student winners from around Victoria.
